

JUNIOR AEM DEVELOPER

PRACTICE ON REAL PROJECT
NO commits, code review by supervisor

EVALUATION

MID-LEVEL AEM DEVELOPER

ROADMAP FOR MID-LEVEL AEM DEVELOPERS TRAINING

STEP 1

PREREQUISITES

A student shall have 2 years of Java development experience and a minimum of 3 months of work with AEM Platform.

Active participation in AEM Community life.

STEP 2

TRAINING

12 weeks:

Work on real project, performing actual tasks under supervision. No code commits.

6-12 months:

Work on a real project as a AEM developer under supervision, committing code to the project.

8 weeks:

Preparation for AEM certification. The training for certification starts after 3 months of work on the project. The student should be able to pass Adobe certified exams AEM Component Developer or AEM 6.0 Developer.

STEP 3

EVALUATION

2+ years' experience with Java/J2EE;

1+ years' experience with AEM platform;

Experience with JCR, Sling, and OSGi;
JSP, JSTL/tag library; Sightly.